

VETERAN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESS

Capability Statement

Veteran-owned project management, change management, and training support that leaves your team able to run the next change on its own.

Change Maven LLC is a veteran-owned small business in Alton, Illinois. We help government programs, prime contractors, and mission-driven organizations deliver change that holds, through hands-on project and change management and practical training that builds lasting internal capability.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Project and Program Management

- ◆ Implementation project management for system, technology, and process rollouts, from kickoff through go-live
- ◆ Schedule, risk, and stakeholder management, with clear status reporting to leadership and sponsors
- ◆ PMO setup and embedded PM support to a government or prime program manager

Change Management and User Adoption

- ◆ Change readiness and impact assessments, stakeholder analysis, and communications planning
- ◆ User adoption and resistance management for new systems and processes
- ◆ Leadership alignment and sponsor coaching so change is led from the top

Training and Workforce Development

- ◆ Lean Six Sigma training and certification (Yellow, Green, and Black Belt) as an authorized GLSS reseller
- ◆ Workshops in project management, leadership, and continuous improvement, in person or virtual
- ◆ Curriculum and instructional design, including facilitated cohorts built around real client projects

Also offered. Emergency preparedness tabletop exercises and continuity planning, delivered with a safety training partner when the scope calls for it.

WHAT SETS US APART

Essayons

Veteran Leadership

Founded by a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers veteran. We show up first, make the effort, and make it work, with real fluency in how federal and military programs run.

Capability, Not Dependency

We teach the method while we deliver the work, so your people are trained and practiced and the next project doesn't need a consultant.
